That across and hide,
Are scooped by the folks
On the opposite side.

The river is falling at all points above.

as the "Solid South."

All the boats of the Big Sandy and School Baptist will be held at Mt. Gilead Church, commencing Friday, the 22nd their belief. It is one of the strongest in the State.

Why such a medicine as Papillon Cough Cure has not been discovered before, is a mystery. It is a delicious syrup, made from simple herbs and pure ginger. It never fails to cure Whooping Cough. For sale by J. James Wood & J. C. Pecor & Co.

The opera house committee, on Tuesday evening, closed a contract with Albert E. Dickerman, manager of the American Stock Company, of Chicago, for the chairs of the new opera house.
They are to be very handsome and of the latest style. The committee has also made a contract with a prominent scenic artist for a fine drop curtain and a full supply of scenery.

MATVILLIE precinct No. 2, is entitled to the banner. The largest vote on record was polled in the race between Sadler and Ball for County Clerk. Four hundred and eighty votes were cast.
Ball's majority being eighty. At the election on Monday there were four hundred and twenty votes polled and a majority for Riddell of eighty-two.

The law prohibiting stock running across the Mayville and Lexington Turnpike, passed at the recent session of the Legislature, is to be enforced. So says President Baldwin. But on the part of that road within the limits of the City of Mayville we'll bet that the law is not enforced. The man doesn't live who could enforce a stock law in this city.

The game of base ball between the "Dudes," of this city, and the "Bright Lights," of Washington, on the diamond field of the latter, Monday afternoon, was witnessed by about three hundred people, many of whom were ladies. The game was called at three o'clock and was finished at six.

NINE negroes from Lexington who were working at a manufacturing establishment in this city, were induced to go back to Lexington for the purpose of voting for the Republican candidates by the promise it is alleged, of their railroad fare, and the price of the time lost from their work. They left by the train Monday and were met by a person who had been informed of the arrangement, and it may be an interesting piece of news to the smart agents, who engaged their services, to know that all nine of them voted the straight Democratic ticket. You can't always sometimes tell how things are going to turn out.

MR. CHARLES EMMERSON and a corps of assistants began, on Monday, the preparation of a complete business directory for this city. The work will be finished as rapidly as possible, and we have reason to believe it will be well done. The following is from the Frankfort Record:
"Mr. Charles Emerson has just completed and published the first city directory of Frankfort. The work is gotten up with great care and contains much useful information to our people.
In addition to a full and complete alphabetical list of all the residents of the city, with their place of business and residence, it contains a postoffice, telegraph and express office directory of the State; a list of all the land owners in the county, with their postoffice addresses and the number of acres of land owned by each; a classified list of all the business men of the city and county, and any amount of miscellaneous information, making a volume well worth having, and one which advances the interest of our people by advertising to the world that we are not only a city in name but in fact. Mr. Emerson has had considerable experience in this business and has done his work well. He proposes to return again in two years to get out a second volume, and it is hoped by that time our population will have become so numerous that he will be compelled to issue a volume twice the size of the present. He will shortly be the work of getting out a similar volume in Mayville, and we can safely recommend him to the residents of that city as a gentleman in every way worthy of their confidence, who will fulfill all his contracts and give them a good job."

A GENTLEMAN of this city has a dog that is very much attached to him and is his constant companion. When he leaves the city as he does occasionally, the dog refuses to eat and manifests grief as plainly as a dumb animal can. On his return the dog is accustomed to receive him with every mark of gratification.
The other day however, the owner of the dog left town and was absent for several days. On his return the animal refused to notice him or to show in any way that he recognized him, and when spoken to paid no attention to the call and it was several days before friendly relations were established between the two. This incident which is true shows that our dumb animals are capable of experiencing pretty much the same sentiments as human beings.

ONLY partial returns have been received from the election in this Appellate District and it is therefore impossible to estimate with any degree of certainty what the result will be. It is however certain that Riddell will go out of the Bluegrass Counties with a majority of at least 2,500, and to secure his defeat this must be overcome in the mountain district which embraces a number of strong Democratic counties. Judge Riddell's friends do not believe that he can be defeated and are claiming his election by from 1,000 to 2,000 majority. On the other hand the adherents of Col. Holt claim his election also, but not so confidently as at an earlier time. Many of the counties being very distant and out of the reach of the telegraph, the returns, necessarily, come in very slowly.

Sudden Death.

Hiram Metcalf, a colored man who lives at Washington, at the upper grade this morning, was taken with hemorrhage of the lungs and died in about ten minutes. A coroner's inquest was held and a verdict rendered in accordance with the above facts.

Camp Meetings.

REGOLES CAMP, August 4, 1884.

The power of the Lord rested upon the camp from the time of the early morning service until the close of the night. The evangelist left this morning, but the interest has not abated in any perceptible degree.

Dr. Tracy preached a stirring sermon at 10:30 a. m., from John 11:26. "Believest thou this," at the conclusion of which quite a number presented themselves at the altar, some seeking pardon others the blessing of entire sanctification. All phases of christian experience were emphasized by Rev. T. C. Boyette, who sought to show that the people expected to see at once a full and free salvation.

A vigorous sermon was preached in the afternoon by Rev. P. H. Smith, of Rom. 1:7 and 11. "I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one who believeth," was the theme of the sermon.
Voluntary, of Cincinnati, followed in an exhortation of great power and when the altar was presented it was almost filled with seekers. Six were converted and two sanctified.

At night the congregation was large and appeared greatly interested in the sermon preached by Rev. T. C. Boyette from John 11:26 and 28. At the conclusion of the sermon one young lady came forward and was with the altar, and it seemed impressed with the thought that this meeting is being held to save souls.

PARKS HILL, August 5, 1884.

Morning prayer was conducted at the public stand by Rev. J. C. C. Newton.

The regular 9 o'clock morning services were conducted by Rev. J. C. C. Newton, who is eminently qualified for such a duty.
This was an enjoyable and impressive meeting. Many spoke sweetly of the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, and of the renewed consecration to Him, while the flowing tears of so many responsive souls testified to the reality of the deep religious feeling pervading the audience.

At 10:30 a. m., Dr. Haywood, of Georgia, preached from Luke 15:1 and 2, to an attentive audience.

At 11 o'clock, Rev. J. C. C. Newton, of practicality, earnestness and spirituality of the sermon has never been surpassed on these grounds, and, perhaps, nowhere within recent years. Indeed, it seemed as if Jesus of Nazareth had come among us with his human voice to call to his loving embrace sinnered humanity, and the "old man," the cast, down-trodden. Surely every one who heard the sermon felt a fresh impulse to labor to rescue perishing souls, and to seek the "old man," the "old man," and left this afternoon for his Georgia home. May God send him on his mission with the same power and success as he has shown here. At 5 p. m., Rev. W. F. Taylor, of Danville, presided, preached from proverbs 6:7 and 8.
His sermon is one of the sort that deeply impresses upon the mind the importance of living a holy life.

Dr. Deems, of New York, has just arrived and will preach Wednesday at 11 a. m., also Thursday and Friday at 11 a.
m. Let everybody who wishes to hear this distinguished divine attend on those days, as he will return to his home in New York Friday afternoon. Dr. Deems is pastor of the "Strangers" of the City of New York.

Went After His Hat.

Albany Argus.

"One day of last week," said an Albany shoe dealer, "when I was alone in my store, a well dressed stranger entered.
He wore a white 'dicer' (as the boys call it), which he held carefully upon a counter near the door. Then he asked for a pair of my very best custom-made lace shoes. A pair was soon placed at his disposal. Seating himself, he tried on the right shoe. 'This is a splendid fit,' he said, 'but my feet are each of a different size. Let me see if the left one fits as well.' The shoe dealer was pulled on his foot and he stood up and gazed proudly down at his extremities. 'Those are about right,' he said, 'but suppose you give me a pair a little smaller.' There is no need of a man making his feet look larger than necessary. I mounted the steps for another pair, when I heard a noise from the front door. Dr. Deems came in time to see a small boy making away with the stranger's hat. 'Look you, hat!' shouted, 'after him quick.' The stranger seemed puzzled for a moment, but then galloped out of the store in pursuit."

"That's all," said the shoe dealer finally. "The new shoes went out with the man, and I have seen neither since.
When he tried on the shoes he stamped his feet very hard, and I suppose that was a signal for his confederate."
